Destination Special

“ Binsar is one of the most scenic spots and acclaimed hill resorts in the Kumaon Himalayas. At an elevation of 2412 mts, this place offers an excellent view of the Kumaon hills and the greater Himalayas, surrounded by Alpine flora, ferns, hanging moss & species of wild flowers. The main attraction of Binsar is the majestic view of the Himalayas, a three hundred kms stretch of famous peaks which include Kedernath, Chaukhamba, Trishul, Nandadevi, and Nandakot & Pachachuli. The forests of Himalayan Oak and Rhododendron are excellent for trekking and communing with nature.

Binsar was the ancient capital of the Chand Raj kings who ruled in the 7th and 8th centuries. Here, King Kalyan built the temple of Shiva, also known as Bineswar. The temple holds much significance for the devout. Binsar, home to several species of animals, birds and wild flowers is also a trekker's paradise ”

Attractions

What are the places of interest?

Ramgarh, Kumaon Hills

Ramgarh is a picturesque hamlet in the heart of orchard land at the foothills of the Himalayas, located 90 kms from Resort. Many writers and thinkers have been drawn to the beauty of Ramgarh. It is an ideal place for long walks, to let your creative juices flow or just unwind or introspect. This is the place where Rabindranath Tagore was inspired to write his Nobel Prize-winning collection of poems, Gitanjali.

Jageshwar

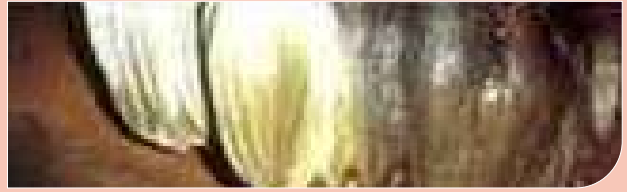

The grand temple complex, consisting of 124 temples is famous not only for its exquisite craftsmanship but also for its pristine beauty of being located among thick deodar woods. 60 Kms from Binsar.

Wildlife Sanctuary

The Binsar wild life sanctuary encompasses an area of about 50 sq. Kms in the middle Himalaya near Almora. The forest abounds with wildlife - commonly seen are leopards, deer and wild boar.

Patal Bhuvaneshwar

Patal Bhuvaneshwar looks over steep green valleys to the Himalayan foothills, beyond which lies the glorious view of the snow-capped mountains. This underground cave complex is over 6000 years old.

What the famous festivals celebrated ?

- Mahashivratri Festivals of Binsar Mahadev
- Sauni
- Hedakhan
- Jageshwer Monsoon Festival

Which are the place of worship ?

Kyunkaleshwar Temple

8th century Shiva temple established by Sankaracharya during his visit to Pauri with the view to revive Hinduism. The temple is well renowned in Pauri and nearby areas, and people have a very strong belief in the temple's main Deities- Lord Shiva, Parvati, Ganesh, and Kartikeya. Other Deities in the temple just behind the main temple are of Lord Rama, Lakshmana & Goddess Sita. One can have a spellbinding sight of the magnificent Himalayan ranges along with Alaknanda Valley and town from here.

Binsar Mahadev

Amidst the dense forest of Birch, Rhododendron and Deodar. Deodar is located the temple of Binsar Mahadev at an altitude of 2480 mts. Sanctum Sanctorum of the temple consists of deities such as Hargauri, Ganesh and Mahisasurmardini. The temple is believed to have been constructed by Maharaja Prithu in memory of his father Bindu. This temple is also known as Bindeshwar temple. A big fair takes place here on the occasion of Baikunth Chaturdashi every year. Women carry lamps (Deepak) on their palms and pray to be blessed with a child, with the strong belief that their desires will be fulfilled. A 12 km trek from here leads to Dudhatoli (3001 mts). One amongst the most beautiful treks in Pauri and on the way trekkers are rewarded by the sight of wonderful flowers, waterfalls and bugyals (pastureland). View of clear blue sky and white peaks from here is magnificent. Dudhatoli was the dreamland of great freedom fighter Veer Chandra Singh Garhwali. Every year on 12th June a big cultural fair is organised here in his memory. 2km. away from Dudhatoli is a place called Brahmadungi where a big stone statue of Veer Chandra Singh Garhwali is placed. Binsar is 114km from Pauri. Last motorable road is Thalising Tehsil 96km away from Pauri. Forest Rest House, PWD Rest House, Dharamshala are the accommodation units here.
