attractions

What are the places of interest?

Kodaikanal or Kodai Hills is truly enchanting. Its evergreen forests, tall cliffs, endless stretch of mountains and the lake delights visitors no end. The sight to behold though is the 'Kurinji' flower that last blossomed in 2004. The slopes burst in a cloud of purple in the Kurinji season, every 12 years. Kodai is also famous for its educational institutions, which are globally known.

Kodai Lake

It is one of the main attractions. In 1863, Vera Levinge, former District Collector of Madurai converted a marshland into the lake. It looks magnificent with its star shape, nestled between verdant slopes

Coaker's Walk

This famous walk constructed in 1872 runs for a kilometer, winding along the edge of steep slopes. The walk snaking around Mt. Nebo provides an elaborate, spectacular view of the plains below

Pillar Rock

This sculpture of Mother Nature is truly spectacular. Three immense vertical granite boulders, each about 400 feet high stand shoulder to shoulder! The chamber between the two pillars is called 'Devil's kitchen'

Silver Cascade

This enchanting waterfall is located on the main Ghat road. What's interesting about this falls is that it is the overflow of Kodai Lake that takes a 180 ft plunge over a steep cliff, to crash into a pool below.

Places to worship

The Mariamman Temple, Vinayagar Temple, Murugan Temple, two mosques at Ellis Villa and Munjikal, sacred Heart Church, Munjikal, Francis Xavier Church, Gorapur, St. Mary's Church, Lassalette, St. Joseph's Church, Luthern Mission Church, Lake End, offer the devout a relaxed and genteel place to pray.

Local Festivals

Summer Festivals : Summer festival is held every year in May in which boat races, flower and fruit shows are specially organized to add to the splendor. Cultural programs are also conducted during the festival.
